

TOLLERTON PARISH COUNCIL

MINUTES OF THE MEETING HELD IN ST MICHAELS CHURCH HALL, TOLLERTON ON TUESDAY 8 JANUARY 2019 AT 7.30PM

PRESENT: Councillors: Paula Thompson (Chairman), Ian Jackson (Vice Chairman), Bob Simpson, Peter Hope & Roger Spark
Clerk: Sandra Windross –

11 members of the public were present.

Public Forum

A Parishioner asked if the Parish Council has done anything about the car parked in the layby in front of the flower trough. We confirmed a letter had been written and it was agreed to write again to the car owner.

Several Parishioners at the meeting wished to express their concerns on the planning application for the anaerobic digester and advised there is a Petition going round the village and once they had reached 100 signatures then our local MP Kevin Hollinrake will raise an objection to the planning. The Chairman advised we have lodged objections with NYCC and suggested everyone write to NYCC lodging their personal objections. It was agreed we will speak to our local District Councillor.

11. Minor matters and Agenda Items for the next meeting

Cllr Spark advised all the public Footpaths are still overgrown – Clerk will chase NYCC.

There are a number of vehicles parking on the footpaths particularly relating to the Barn, is it possible to ask Highways to address this.

It has been noted that there has been harassment by a Parishioner regarding the use of the dog bins on the Green we believe this matter has been reported to the Police.

Cllr Walker ask if some of the Books in the telephone box can some be transferred to the village hall there were no objections to this.

It was agreed to reduce the Trees at the end of Main Street and clear back the hedge. The Clerk was requested to get a price for the work from Gary Marston for clearing back the hedging and Yorkshire Sump Grinders to trim the trees before the Daffodils and snow drop come through.

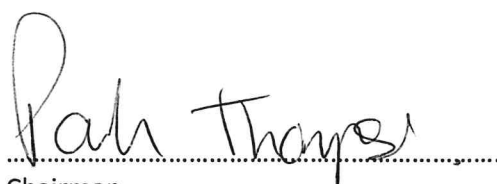

The Meeting closed at 8.23pm – the next meeting is scheduled for the 5th February 2019. Cllr Walker placed his apologies he will be unable to attend the next meeting.
